

A European Parliament Sakharov Prize Network event in cooperation with the University of Rome Tor Vergata and UNICEF

Public debate on 25 YEARS OF THE CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

The future for children's rights and the role of law

21 November 2014 at 10.00 - 12.00 a.m.

University of Rome Tor Vergata, Via Columbia, 2
Faculty of Economics, Building A, Room TL (Aula Verde)

Programme

Welcome address by Professor Giuseppe Novelli Rector, University of Rome Tor Vergata

Address by Antonio Tajani Vice-President of the European Parliament

Address by Professor Gustavo Piga Director, BA in Global Governance, University of Rome Tor Vergata

Public debate moderated by Fausta Speranza journalist, special correspondent-Radio Vaticana with active participation from the audience

Panel

Hauwa Ibrahim

Sakharov Prize Laureate
Global Governance Professor at University of Rome Tor Vergata

David Sassoli

Vice-President of the European Parliament

Federica Mucci

Professor of International Law, University of Rome Tor Vergata

Stefano Semplici

Chair of the International Bioethics Committee of Unesco

Davide Usai

Director General, Unicef Italy

Francesco Aureli

Representative to the International Institutions Save the Children

12.00-13.00 Networking lunch for all participants